

Cincinnati, Dec. 26th, 1888

The Hon Secretary of the Treasury Washington
Sir

About a month ago I had the honor to submit to you a report of a trial of moulds in the mint at Philadelphia. The use of them would certainly save the Government a good deal of money. So far I have not received any answer and remain hoping that it is only an oversight.

Very Respectfully
A. J. Lustig
Care Post Office.

Cincinnati, O.

(Copy)
of Lustig's letter
to Dep.

Cincinnati December 26 88

The Honorable Secretary of the Treasury
Washington

Sir:

About a month ago I had the honor to submit to you a report of a trial of moulds in the mint at Philadelphia the use of them would certainly save the government a good deal of money so far I have not received any answer and remain hoping that it is only an oversight

very respectfully
A J Lustig

Care

Postoffice

Cincinnati

Cin. O
Dec 26/88

AJ Lustig

wants ans. re to his moulds-tried
in Phil Mint

Treasury Department,
Bureau of the Mint,
December 27, 1888.

Respectfully referred to the Superintendent of the Mint at Philadelphia for reply to writer.

J. M. [Signature]
Director of the Mint

Act Secretary

Mint of the United States at Philadelphia,

MELTING AND REFINING DEPARTMENT,

Philadelphia, Dec. 28th, 1888.

Hon. D. M. Fox

Superintendent

Sir,

Referring to the letter of Mr. A. J. Lustig to the Hon. Secy of the Treasury, under date of Dec 26th inst. (herewith returned), I have to say that the moulds made by Mr Lustig were tested in this department, and not found to be suitable for our use.

Very Respectfully,

D. K. Tuttle

Melting & Refining

Mint of the United States at Philadelphia, Pa.,

MELTING AND REFINING DEPARTMENT,

December 28th, 1888.

D. R. Tuttle.

Melter and Refiner.

Referring to Letter of
A. J. Lustig, Esq., that the moulds
made by Dr Lushington
are not found
suitable for use.

No. of Enclosures,

Dec. 28.

NARA RG104, Entry 1, Box 155

[Letter One:]

Cincinnati,
December 26, 1888

The Hon. Secretary of the Treasury Washington

Sir

About a month ago I had the honor to submit to you a report of a trial of moulds in the Mint at Philadelphia. The use of them would certainly save the Government a good deal of money. So far I have not received any answer and remain hoping that it is only an oversight.

Very Respectfully,
A.J. Lustig
Care Post Office
Cincinnati O.

(Copy)
Of Lusting's letter to Dpt.

[Letter Two:]

Cincinnati
December 26, 1888

The Honorable Secretary of the Treasury
Washington

Sir:

About a month ago I had the honor to submit to you a report of a trial of moulds in the Mint at Philadelphia the use of them would certainly save the government a good deal of money. So far I have not received any answers and remain hoping that it is only an oversight.

Very respectfully
A.J. Lustig
Care
Post office
Cincinnati
O.

[Noted on back of Letter Two:]

Treasury Department,
Bureau of the Mint,
December 27, 1888

Respectfully referred to the Superintendent of the Mint at Philadelphia for reply to writer.

James P. Kimball
Director of the Mint

[Letter Three:]

[Abstract:] Referring to letter of A.J. Lustig...

Mint of the United States at Philadelphia,
Melting and Refining Department,
Philadelphia,
December 28, 1888

Hon. D.M. Fox,
Superintendent

Sir:

Referring to the letter of Mr. A.J. Lustig to the Hon. Sec'y of the Treasury under date of December 26th inst. (herewith returned), I have to say that the moulds made by Mr. Lustig was tested in this Department, and not found to be suitable for our use.

Very Respectfully,
D.K. Tuttle
Melter & Refiner